License Renewal
POST-FILING ANNOUNCEMENT

On January 21, 2005, the following stations: KNLG, KNLQ, KNLP, KNLN, KNLM, KMRF, and KKLL were each granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as public trustees. The same license was also granted to KBIY on April 4, 2005, and to KNLH on May 2, 2007.

The licenses for all of these stations will expire on February 1, 2013. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC.

A copy of this application is available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last six years for KNLH, and for the last eight years for the other aforementioned stations.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by January 2, 2013.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at the following Missouri addresses for each respective station:
KNLG: 9810 State Road AE in New Bloomfield
KNLQ: 15 Shady Oak Lane in Cuba
KNLP: 10057 Jaguar Rd in Mineral Point
KNLM and KMRF: 3208 State Highway OO, Marshfield
KKLL: 831 South Moffet in Joplin
KBIY: 805 Hwy 103 in Van Buren
KNLH: 6091 Tower Road in House Springs and KNLN on Highway 133, 2.2 kilometers north of Highway 42 in Vienna.

Information may also be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, or online at www.fcc.gov.
