DATE:	February 19, 2013
PROGRAM NAME:	Here's Help
TIMES:	9:00 AM
DURATION:	29:09 min
DESCRIPTION:	More and more people are being referred to NLEC than ever before. One individual was referred to by the security guards at the bus station. Police drop people off, hospitals send patients after discharge. People are brought in from different counties. The need is beyond the ability to be met effectively.

DATE:	February 26, 2013
PROGRAM NAME:	Here's Help
TIME(S):	9:00 AM
DURATION:	29:47 min
DESCRIPTION:	"The war on poverty has become the war on the impoverished." Local municipalities are trying to stop churches from doing the work of God, opening their buildings to help the homeless. They are stopping those that are already doing so, declaring them "illegal shelters". The city of St Louis is preventing people from feeding the homeless in the city due to so-called health and sanitation laws. NLEC has begun distributing "Meals Ready to Eat" government issued food to our service personnel.

DATE:	March 2, 2013
PROGRAM NAME:	News and Views
TIME(S):	2:30 PM
DURATION:	30:04 min
DESCRIPTION:	Charlie Hale discusses with Mike McKim the advantages of being without money. They discuss a man who lives in a cave in Utah and lives off the land. He has a website, "zero profit". He studied anthropology and was quite successful. He began to wonder about a Christ like lifestyle, and freedom from materialism – the thought of owing nothing to anyone. He feels dishonest any other way.
